Naked and Being found Exposed

(2019)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Naked and Being found Exposed.

- Revelation 15:16: (“Behold, I am coming like a thief! Blessed is the one who stays awake, keeping his garments on, that he may not go about naked and be seen exposed!”)

Keeping his garments on: carries the idea of believers in Christ remaining clothed with his robe of righteousness the garment of salvation, meaning they are found trusting in Christ righteousness and not their own self-righteousness.

May not go about naked: carries the idea of believers in Christ being found walking and trusting in their own self-righteousness and own works to attain to righteousness that leads to salvation and eternal life, and their vain effort being exposed, and they are found lacking.

The allusion here seems to be to one who, regardless of danger, or of the approach of an enemy, lays aside their garments and lies down to sleep. Then the thief come and take away their garments and leaves them naked. The essential idea, is of vigilance, and remaining in faith trusting in Christs righteousness and not our own self-righteousness, and living in a manner that honours God and brings a good testimony to the name of Jesus, so that we are always ready for the coming of the Son of man, in contrast to living a religious life of hypocrisy and pretence.

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
